

English Symposium
2023

Finding Your Voice: The Virtue of Divine Persistence

Thursday, March 2 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.

Chaplain Jenna Carson currently serves as a chaplain in the United States Air Force. In 2022, after several years of petitioning church leadership, Carson became the first female military chaplain endorsed by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Prior to serving in the Air Force, she worked as a chaplain in the federal prison system and in various hospitals. Chaplain Carson earned a BA in English from Brigham Young University and a Master of Divinity from Harvard Divinity School.